Lola Rykiel's Ultimate Detox

For her annual end-of-summer cleanse, Lola Rykiel, the Parisian fashionista-turned-PR Director (for Sonia Rykiel, her grandmother's namesake brand), heads West to California's The Pearl Laguna. A week of vegetarian food, yoga, meditation, and hiking, is the perfect detox for an indulgent summer holiday spent in L'île de rê, France. "It is not very French!" Rykiel laughs. "My mother can't believe that I was hiking, meditating like a yogi (or at least trying), and not drinking coffee for a week - I think I've almost become American!" See more from her trip here.

"Here I am enjoying an afternoon meditation in the gazebo in the garden of the Pearl. It was one of my favorite spots to read and meditate at the Pearl."
